

Business casual but more fun if you wear gear from your alma mater or favorite team.

Apparel for the evening:

Wear school colors, toss a dictionary for a Woodinville 3rd grader.

- ◆ Brag about your alma mater or favorite sports team.
- ◆ Get excited about going home with one of a dozen cases containing 18 bottles of premium Woodinville wines.
- ◆ Get excited about going home with one of a dozen "invited" to the Maltby Cafe Oktoberfest party on Halloween.
- ◆ Want to be among the limited number of couples without even raising your bid card.
- ◆ Take a chance to pick the "Best of the Live Auction" of auctioneer Jay Fiske and his homegrown spotters.
- ◆ Be eager to raise your bid card under the watchful eye of wines during the silent auction...and at your table, too.
- ◆ Enjoy generous pourings of fine, premium Woodinville

This year you'll . . .

Woodinville Rotary Invites You to
Our 18th Annual Charity Fund-Raising Event

Wine
'n Shine

Saturday October 4
Meydenbauer Center
Bellevue
5:30 p.m.

Literacy - Scholarships - Education

In keeping with the motto of Woodinville Rotary . . .

Having Fun Is Serious Business

Fund-a-Need

Join us October 4 when we will raise our bid cards for full tuition, full year College Scholarships for Woodinville graduates . . .

. . . and for all-weather, lighted sports fields at the community center in Woodinville.

$125 per guest
Wine and Dinner
Silent, Almost Live and Live Auction

Since organizing in 1986, Woodinville Rotary Club has contributed more than $1.5 million to our local and world community.

This year also help us support --

Dictionaries for
Woodinville 3rd Graders

Operation Warm Coats
for Northshore's Schoolkids

Other Potential Beneficiaries include:

Boy Scouts - Northlakes District
Friends of the Hidden River
Hopelink Literacy and Housing
Kokanee Reading Camp
Maltby Food Bank
Northshore Family Center

Northshore Scholarship Foundation
Northshore Senior Services
Northshore YMCA
Polio Plus
Rotary First Harvest
21 Acres Ag Education

Village Volunteers Clean Water Project in Kiminini, Kenya

www.rotarywineandshine.org

Rotary's Community
Service Partners

